

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2015

Harry Wilson (Nebraska)—A star for Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's early Nebraska teams, Harry Wilson was a first-team All-Big Eight pick and an honorable-mention UPI All-American as a senior in 1966. The 5-11, 200-pound halfback from Steubenville, Ohio, rushed for 1,610 yards and 10 touchdowns in his career. Wilson led NU in rushing yardage in both 1965 (672) and 1966 (635), while leading the 1966 Huskers in all-purpose (1,077) and kickoff return yardage (226). He helped NU to three straight Big Eight titles as a three-time letterwinner. He played in Nebraska's first Cotton and Sugar bowls, along with a national championship game appearance in the Orange Bowl to cap the 1965 season. All three Husker teams finished in the top six nationally, combining for a 28-2 regular-season record with only narrow losses at Oklahoma (1964, 1966). As a sophomore, Wilson and the Huskers opened 9-0 before a loss at Oklahoma and a 10-7 setback to No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. The 1965 Huskers went 10-0 in the regular season capped by a 21-9 pounding of Oklahoma, before falling to national champion Alabama in the Orange Bowl. As a senior, Wilson led the Big Red to a 9-2 record that included a 6-1 conference mark and NU's fourth consecutive Big Eight crown. Wilson closed his college career with an appearance in the Senior Bowl, before being chosen in the 1967 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent the 1967, 1968 and 1969 seasons with the Eagles.

Jeff Krejci (Nebraska) - A first-team All-Big Eight safety for Hall of Fame Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers, Jeff Krejci led the Blackshirts with four interceptions as a senior in 1981. In his only season as a starter, Krejci captured honorable-mention All-America accolades from the AP after leading the Big Red defensive backs with 63 tackles. Nebraska's secondary also led the nation in pass defense, surrendering just 100.1 yards per game, fueling NU's run to the 1981 Big Eight title. The 6-0, 180-pounder from Schuyler, Neb., helped the Huskers rank sixth nationally in total defense. During Krejci's three seasons as a letterwinner, the Huskers posted a 29-7 overall record with eight shutouts. The Huskers played in the Orange, Cotton and Sun bowls, and finished among the top 10 in the national polls all three seasons. Krejci, who capped his college career in the Senior Bowl, came to NU as a walk-on after earning all-state honors at quarterback for Class B state champion Schuyler in 1976. He started on the 1977 NU freshman team before redshirting in 1978. He played behind All-Big Eight safety Russell Gary in 1979 and 1980. Krejci closed his career with 77 total tackles, six interceptions, eight pass breakups and two fumble recoveries. He signed a free agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1982.

Scott Frost (Nebraska) - The starting quarterback on Nebraska's 1997 national championship team, Scott Frost was a second-team All-Big 12 choice as a senior. Frost led Hall of Fame Coach Tom Osborne's final team to a perfect 13-0 season that culminated with a 42-17 dismantling of Peyton Manning and No. 3 Tennessee in the 1998 Orange Bowl. The 1997 Huskers won 11 of their 13 games by 13 or more points, including a 39-point pounding of Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship Game. As a senior, the 6-3, 220-pounder from Wood River, Neb., became the first Nebraska quarterback in history to pass (1,237) and rush (1,095) for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. His 1,095 rushing yards ranked as the No. 3 rushing total by a quarterback in Husker history. One of five finalists for the 1997 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, Frost threw just four interceptions. His most memorable pass came with an overtime connection to Matt

Davison (with some help from Shevin Wiggins) in a 45-38 overtime victory at Missouri on Nov. 8, 1997. Frost finished that game with a career-best 316 yards of total offense, including 175 passing and 141 rushing. He closed his collegiate career with 2,677 passing yards and 1,533 rushing yards. He had a hand in 46 touchdowns, including 28 on the ground. Frost was a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1997 and a two-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection. He was chosen in the third round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the New York Jets. He spent six seasons as an NFL safety, including 1998 through 2001 with the Jets. He finished 2001 with Cleveland, before going to Green Bay in 2002 and Tampa Bay in 2003.

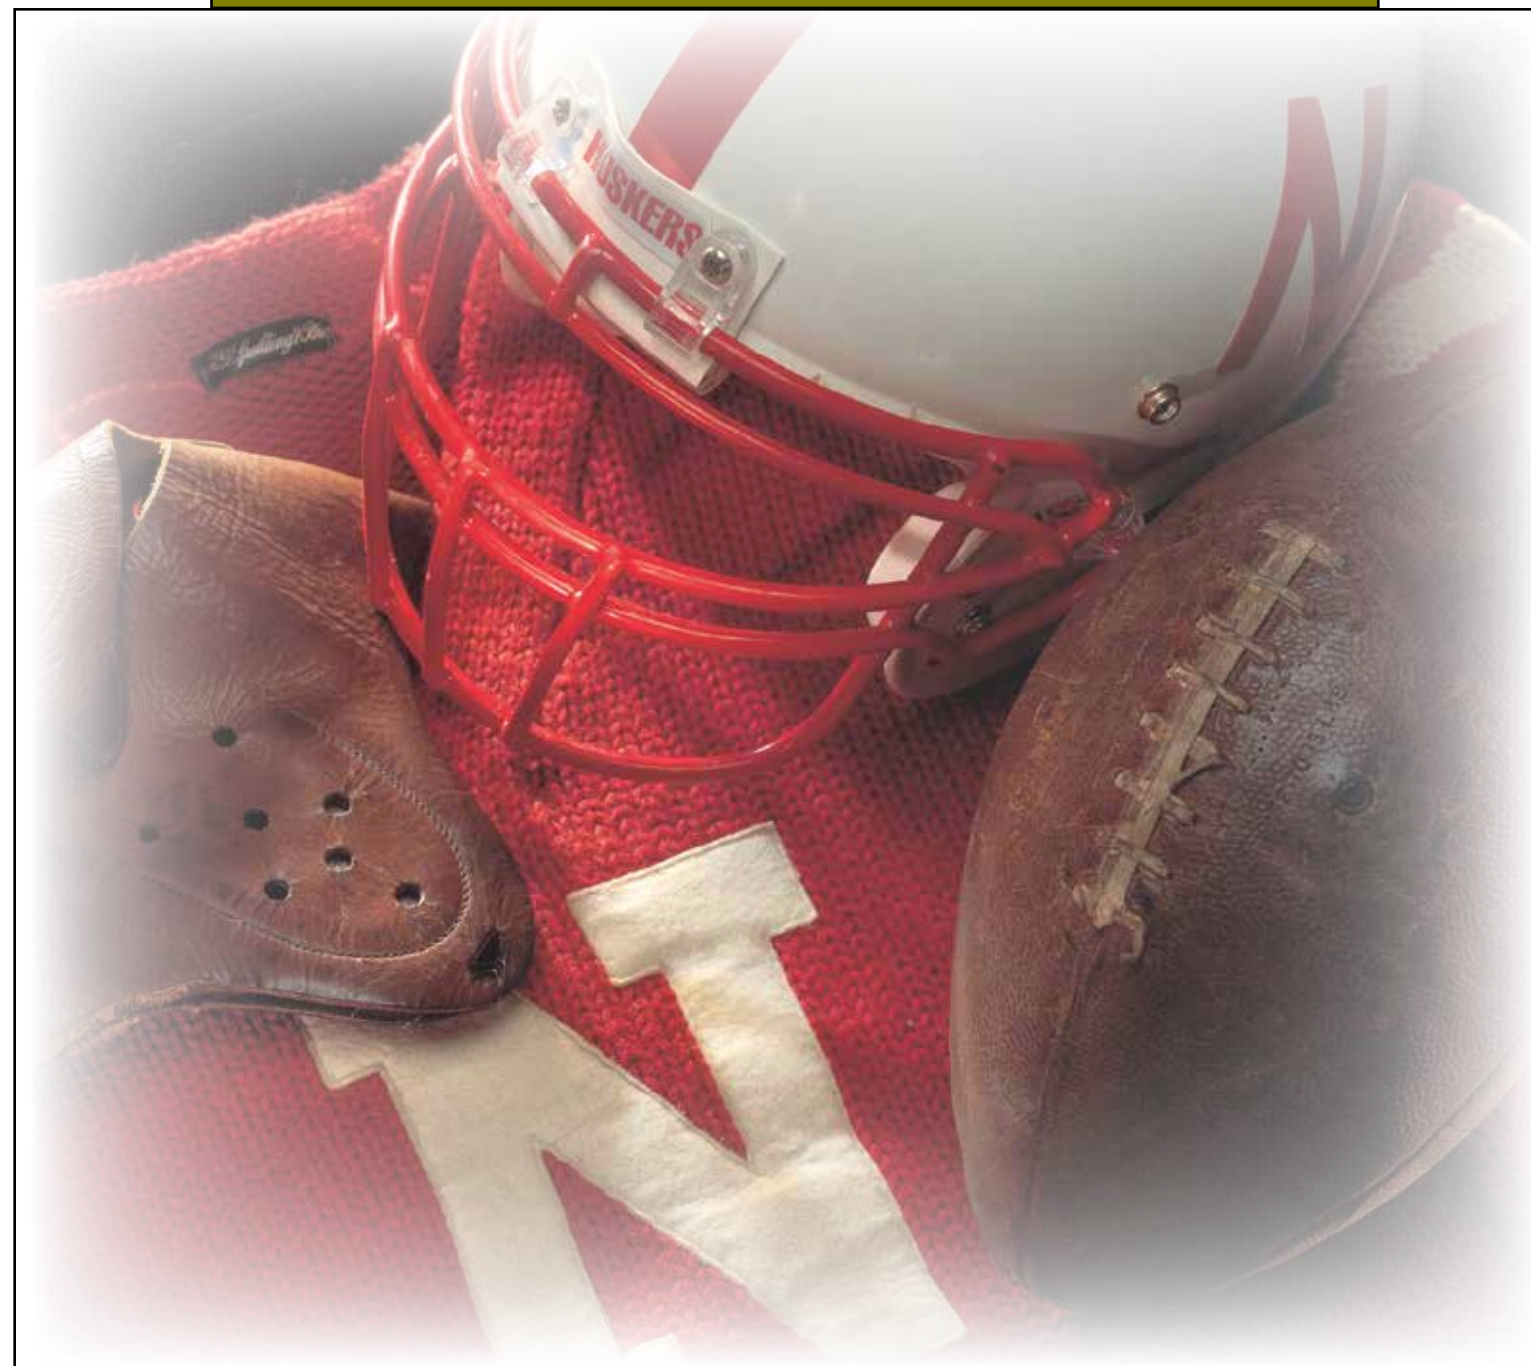

Demorrio Williams (Nebraska) – An explosive and disruptive defender, Demorrio Williams produced 220 tackles, including 27 for 116 yards lost with 12 sacks for 92 yards in his two seasons as a Blackshirt. A 6-2, 215-pound linebacker from Beckville, Texas, Williams was a first-team All-Big 12 selection and one of 10 semifinalists for the Butkus Award as a senior. A 2003 Nebraska captain, Williams started all 13 games and recorded 128 tackles as a senior, including 21 for a position-record 92 yards in losses. His 11 sacks for 77 yards are also the most in history by a Husker linebacker. He also recovered four fumbles and forced two more while putting up a team-high 13 quarterback hurries that led to three interceptions by his teammates. A fourth-round selection by Atlanta in the 2004 NFL Draft, Williams spent four seasons with the Falcons from 2004 through 2007. He spent four more seasons with Kansas City from 2008 through 2011, before closing his career with San Diego in 2012. He played in 138 career NFL games with 68 starts, recording 618 combined tackles, including 7.5 sacks. He added seven career interceptions that he returned for two touchdowns, while forcing six fumbles and recovering four with one more score. On Dec. 12, 2005, Williams recorded a career-high 15 tackles against Josh Bullocks and the New Orleans Saints.

Josh Bullocks (Nebraska) – One of the top pass defenders in Nebraska history, Josh Bullocks captured first-team All-America honors as a sophomore in 2003, when he intercepted a school record 10 passes. His 13 career interceptions rank No. 2 in Husker history. He added 160 total tackles, one fumble recovery, one blocked punt and 17 pass breakups in his career. The 6-0, 205-pound free safety from Chattanooga, Tenn., was a first-team All-Big 12 choice as a sophomore before adding second-team honors in 2004. A captain in his final season as a junior, Bullocks played in 37 career games with 29 starts. He started five games as a redshirt freshman in 2002, notching 48 tackles and his first career interception. He started all 13 games as a sophomore for the Blackshirts, who led the nation in pass defense, interceptions (32) and turnover margin (+23). As a junior, he added two interceptions and a career-high 63 tackles. Bullocks was chosen by New Orleans in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft and spent four seasons with the Saints. He closed his career with Chicago, spending the 2009 and 2010 seasons with the Bears. In 90 career NFL games, Bullocks made 53 starts, notching 290 tackles and six interceptions.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

2015 INDUCTION DINNER
PRESENTED BY NEBRASKA FURNITURE MART

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11
WEST STADIUM CLUB, MEMORIAL STADIUM
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PROGRAM

Reception - 6-6:30 p.m.

Dinner - 6:30 p.m.

Program - 7 p.m.

Greg Sharpe - The Voice of the Huskers - Emcee

Irv Veitzer - President of Nebraska Chapter

THE CLASS OF 2015

LYELL BREMSER SPECIAL MERIT AWARD

Byron and Olinda Boslau Lincoln, Nebraska

CLARENCE E. SWANSON MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD

Kelly and Virginia Holthus York, Nebraska

STATE COLLEGE HALL OF FAME PLAYER

Brad Colburn Midland University Offensive Line (1994-97)

POSTHUMOUS INDUCTEE BY UNANIMOUS VOTE OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Brook Berringer University of Nebraska Quarterback (1992-95)

NEBRASKA HALL OF FAME PLAYERS

Harry Wilson	University of Nebraska	Halfback (1964-66)
Jeff Krejci	University of Nebraska	Safety (1979-81)
Scott Frost	University of Nebraska	Quarterback (1996-97)
Demorrio Williams	University of Nebraska	Linebacker (2002-03)
Josh Bullocks	University of Nebraska	Safety (2002-04)

MENU

Chef's Carved USDA Choice Roast Beef with Merlot Sauce / Chardonnay Chicken

Oven Roasted Rosemary Potatoes / Green Beans with Parmesan Butter

Premier's Fresh Garden Greens with French and Raspberry Vinaigrette

Pasta Carbonara Salad / Broccoli and Bacon Pasta Salad

Wheatberry, Dill-Rye, and Sour Dough Rolls / Assorted Gourmet Desserts

We would like to extend our thanks to Keegan Wilson, the HuskerVision crew and Photographer Richard Voges for video and photography services.

LYELL BREMSER SPECIAL MERIT AWARD

Byron and Olinda Boslau have been significant contributors of their time and support to Nebraska Athletics throughout their lives. Byron, who is the retired president, chairman and chief executive officer of Farmers Mutual Insurance, and Olinda both earned their bachelor's degrees from the University of Nebraska. Olinda, who is a former supervisor of student teachers at Nebraska, also earned her master's degree from Nebraska and is on the Alumni Association Board of Directors for UNL's College of Education and Human Sciences. She is a former English, speech and debate teacher at Lincoln Southeast High School.

Through Farmers Mutual, major gifts have been given to the Husker Nation Championship Drive, and as part of the Director's Club and Rebounders Club. Other gifts have included East Stadium Club and West Stadium Club seating at football, Club seating at men's basketball and Courtside, Suite and VIP seating at Husker volleyball matches. The Boslau's also personally donate to the Rebounders Club and Relay Club at Nebraska.

In addition to their gifts to Nebraska Athletics, the Boslau's are extensively involved with the Special Olympics. The couple was awarded the Champion of Greatness Award by Special Olympics Nebraska in 2015, the second time they have won the honor (also 2007). Byron is a past-president of both Special Olympics and the YMCA of Lincoln. The couple also donates to the Lincoln Community Foundation, the United Way, YMCA Strong Kids Campaign, Girl Scouts and Matt Talbot Kitchen and Outreach.

The Boslau's 34-year-old son, Brad, has earned more than 225 medals at Special Olympics since beginning competition at age 12.

Inaugurated by the Nebraska Chapter in 1974, the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award was created to honor a person "with a background of interest in and support of intercollegiate football, who has made a sizeable contribution to society through public service and/or self-sacrifice."

CLARENCE E. SWANSON MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD

Kelly and Virginia Holthus have given generously with their time, spirit and financial resources to the University of Nebraska Athletic Department for many years. Kelly, who attended graduate school at the Wisconsin School of Banking, has been the chairman, president and chief executive officer of family-owned Cornerstone Bank in York, Neb., since 1977. He also has served as the chairman of the Nebraska Bankers Association, the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and the York City Council. Virginia, who does extensive volunteer work in the church and York community, is involved with the York General Health Care Auxiliary.

The long-time football skybox and club seat holders also have courtside seats at Nebraska volleyball and men's basketball games. They also made a generous donation to the Husker Nation Championship Drive.

Inaugurated by the Nebraska Chapter in 1972, the Clarence E. Swanson Meritorious Service Award is given annually to honor a person or family "for outstanding contributions to the University of Nebraska and the Husker Athletic Department through personal service, personal support of athletic department programs and dedication to the Husker football program and intercollegiate athletics."

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2015

Brad Colburn (Midland) - A four-year starter on the offensive line at Midland Lutheran College in Fremont, Brad Colburn captured first-team NAIA All-America honors as a senior in 1997. An honorable-mention All-American as a junior for the Warriors in 1996, Colburn was a two-time first-team all-conference selection for Midland as a junior and senior. The 6-0, 272-pounder out of Overland High School in Aurora, Colo., went on to play in the 1997 College/Semi Pro All-American Bowl at the Metrodome in Minneapolis in 1997. Colburn, who was inducted into the Midland University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009, was a starter as a freshman on an offensive line that carried the Warriors to the 1994 NAIA playoffs. Colburn is now a real estate agent for Perry & Co. in Denver, and is active in endurance sports, including triathlons, marathons, ultra-marathons and skiing.

Brook Berringer (Nebraska) - A four-year letterwinner as a quarterback for Hall of Fame Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers, Brook Berringer is being inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame by unanimous vote of the Executive Committee Board of Directors. Berringer played major roles in Nebraska's back-to-back national championship seasons in 1994 and 1995. As a junior in 1994, Berringer earned second-team All-Big Eight honors after going 7-0 as a starter in place of an injured Tommie Frazier. Berringer overcame a partially collapsed lung in midseason to guide Nebraska to the national championship game in the Orange Bowl against Miami. Against the Hurricanes, Berringer connected with tight end Mark Gilman on a 19-yard touchdown for the Huskers' opening score of the game. Frazier, who stepped in to win MVP honors in the 24-17 victory over Miami, returned to full health as a senior in 1995. Frazier reclaimed the starting job, but Berringer continued to play a significant role. In his four-year career, Berringer appeared in 36 games with seven starts while throwing for 1,769 yards. He passed for 1,295 yards and 10 touchdowns, while adding 279 rushing yards and six more scores on the ground. He finished with 2,141 career total-offense yards. Berringer was likely to be chosen in the NFL Draft, but was killed in a plane crash on April 18, just two days before the draft.